

English

Latest News

Hilversum, Saturday 03 November 2007 12:25 UTC

12th Dutch soldier killed in Afghanistan

The Hague - Another Dutch soldier has been killed in the Afghan province of Uruzgan. Corporal Ronald Groen, who was 21 years old, was on patrol in an armoured vehicle that hit an improvised explosive device in the road. Two other soldiers were injured in the blast but are said to be in a stable condition.

The Dutch contingent is currently involved in an operation to drive the Taliban from the area around Chora. Corporal Groen is the twelfth Dutch soldier to be killed while serving on the NATO-led ISAF mission in Afghanistan.

Latest News	Audio News our Email News Bulletin
--------------------	---------------------------------------

- . Turkey calls for action on Iraq-based "terrorists"
- . UN Myanmar envoy talks amid expulsion row
- . Merkel visits Afghanistan
- . US nuclear power plant sealed off
- . US TV programme identifies mystery Iraq witness
- . Venezuelan parliament approves reforms
- . Calderon pledges support for Tabasco
- . Breakaway Tamil Tiger commander held in UK
- . Mass demonstration against Georgian president
- . Convicted train bombers on hunger strike
- . Morocco recalls ambassador to Spain
- . Report accuses Rio police of illegal killings

Copyright Radio Netherlands 2007 Disclaimer