32 American invader army terrorists killed and 9 Mujahideen martyred in a three hour battle in Kunar Saturday early morning 11-04-2009 at approximately 4 am local time, Mujahideen ambushed a foot patrolling unit of American invader army terrorists in Chechal area in Korangal district of Kunar province, in the ambush a three hour frenzy battle started in which thirty two American invader army terrorists were killed and many were wounded, the dead bodies of American terrorists were in Mujahideen position also cameras, weapons and other military equipment were Mujahideen's booty. In this three hour frenzy battle nine Mujahideen were martyred and one was wounded.

Inshallaah Mujahideen will soon release a video of this operation in which the whole world will get to see the reality of war in Afghanistan which the American government hides from the world everyday. We advice people who are interesting in discovering the truth about American casualties and how the mainstream media hides this reality from the general public is to do a quick news search on Afghanistan and see what the mainstream media has reported from Afghanistan today. Reported by Zabihullah Mujahid

Assalamu Alykum!

This is a great victory indeed.

32 dead is a huge loss to the Americans while only 9 Mujahideen Martyred which is a victory.

Ameen to the dua's Brothers and Insha Allah soon they will try to flee from the land of Khuraasan, but I believe they cannot.
