

"The talks should be unconditional and the US should also present their stance while the withdrawal of foreign troops, the future of Afghanistan and several other issues should be discussed," he stated.

To another question that whether UN can play any role in solution of the Afghan issue, Abdul Salam Zaeef concluded: "Every one believe that UN has lots its impartiality and it is a pro-US organization. The United Nations even could not condemn cruelties at Guantanamo prison. That is why I believe that instead of UN, the OIC can play an effective role the future of Afghanistan if both the sides agree."

Mulla Abdul Salam Zaeef was Taliban ambassador to Islamabad, Pakistan in 2001 when US attacked Afghanistan. He was handed over to US by Pakistan officials in 2002. He spent several years at US detention facility in Guantanamo and was freed after the efforts of the present Afghan government.

Zaeef authored a book "The picture of Guantanamao" in Pashto and Dari languages. According to Zaeef his book will also be translated into English and French. Ends
